

VACANCY
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Applications are invited for the post of Executive Director at the Western and Central Pacific Fisheries Commission (WCPFC). The Executive Director resides in Pohnpei, Federated States of Micronesia where the secretariat of the Commission is headquartered. There are currently 16 international and local staff at the secretariat. The Commission's website contains a range of information relating to the Commission including the Convention which establishes the Commission and describes the responsibilities of the Executive Director (Article 15), Staff Regulations and other Basic Texts. Appropriately qualified individuals with extensive experience in institutional management and multilateral arrangements for the conservation and management of shared fish stocks are invited to submit written applications, complete with a resume and contact details for three (3) referees, to: The Chairman, WCPFC, PO Box 2356, Kolonia, Pohnpei State, Federated States of Micronesia, 96941 by 31st December 2009. Requests for additional information and applications can be submitted electronically to: edrecruitment@wcpfc.int The appointee is required to take up the post in April 2010.